Vues d'exposition

A square artwork with a blue background, white scratches, and the word 'URBANITY' in black text. The artwork is mounted on a light gray wall. The blue background is covered in numerous white scratches and marks, giving it a distressed or weathered appearance. The word 'URBANITY' is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font in the center of the square. The right side of the square has a vertical strip of lighter blue or white, possibly representing a different material or a specific artistic effect.
